

PRSA Nominating Committee Report to PRSA Western District

The National Nominating Committee of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) has begun its annual process of recruiting candidates for the 2015 Board Officers and Directors.

In reviewing candidates, the committee weighs qualifications and characteristics such as:

- proven leadership skills and professional accomplishments
- diversity of practice sectors, such as agency, corporate, nonprofit, government, military and academia
- geographical origin
- candidate diversity

Requirements for applying for an open position:

A candidate must be:

- Accredited in Public Relations (APR)
- A member of PRSA in good standing with at least one of the following qualifications:
 - Held a leadership role within the Society, including but not limited to
 - Member of a Chapter, District or Section board of directors
 - Chair of a National or local committee or task force
 - Position of a National PRSA Assembly Delegate, or
 - Served as a public relations professional for 20 or more years, with increasing levels of responsibility.

Positions that are available:

- Chair-Elect
- Treasurer
- Secretary
- Director, East Central District (two-year term)
- Director, Mid-Atlantic District (two-year term)
- Director, Northeast District (two-year term)
- Director, Tri-State District (two-year term)
- Director, Western District (two-year term)
- Director, At-Large (two-year term)

Deadline:

The submission deadline for applications is Tuesday, June 17.

Website:

Visit the PRSA website at www.prsa.org for more information –
PRSA.org > About > Leadership > Board Service > Nominating Process

Contact:

Kristen Bonilla, APR
PRSA Western District Representative to the PRSA National Nominating Committee
(808) 535-7982
kristen.bonilla@hawaiipacifichealth.org